Hymn

As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold,
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright.
So, most gracious Lord, may we
Evermore be led to thee.

As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed.
There to bend the knee before
Thee whom heaven and earth adore.
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek thy mercey-seat.

In the heavenly country bright
Need they no created light;
Thou its light, its joy, its crown,
Thou its sun which goes not down:
There for ever may we sing
Alleluyas to our King

Hymn

Will your anchor hold in the storms of life.
When the clouds unfold their wings of strife?
When the strong tides lift, and the cables strain.
Will your anchor drift, or firm remain?

*We have an anchor that keeps the soul
Steadfast and sure while the billows roll;
Fastened to the Rock which cannot move.
Grounded firm and deep in the Saviour's love!*

Will you anchor hold in the straits of fear.
When the breakers roar and the reef is near?
While the surges rave, and the wild winds blow.
Shall the angry waves then your barque o'erflow?

Will your eyes behold through the morning light
The city of gold and the harbour bright?
Will you anchor safe by the heavenly shore.
When life's storms are past for evermore?
