Pre Brittany Trip French Language Course

Dear Parents,

This year we will have the assistance of Ellie Freeman a final year French Undergraduate student from Exeter University, she is joining us on the trip as well as helping us run this little course. She is joining us to expand the language element of the trip for the pupils.

I am proposing to run a short French language course for the pupils attending the school French Trip to Brittany this summer.

Purpose:

Increase pupils confidence in using spoken French to communicate more in French while on the trip.

What will we cover:

The 4 lessons will be loosely broken down to:

1. Finding your way around town
2. French sailing school
3. Purchasing gifts
4. The campsite

The emphasis will be on fun, so we are going to use lots of games & role play, they will have the French vocabulary from their French lessons in school, so we are working on the confidence to use it.

Snacks, drinks & ice cream will be provided as part role play each week, one evening we are going to cook Gallettes & Crêpes, so they won't go hungry.

When

16:00 to 17:30

Tuesdays

6th, 13th, 20th & 27th June

Cost

£40

Course teachers:

Ellie Freeman, John & Keri Jenner

Yours sincerely

John Jenner
