Dear Parent/Guardian,

So we now have more concrete details for the London trip! There ends the good news!

Due to some restrictions on sleeper trains in relation to adult to child ratios and, as always, prices, there are issues with us taking that mode of transport, so once again we will be enjoying the hospitality of National Express Coaches! As we have a very full day this means leaving horribly early in the morning.

Timetable:

Meet at Exeter Coach station at 4:30am to catch the 4:45am coach to London Victoria, arriving at 9:20am.

Tube from Victoria to Camden Town to get to London Zoo for 10am.

Leave London Zoo at 1pm to travel from Camden Town, by Tube to Piccadilly Circus to have a meal at TGI Friday, with those who do not wish to able to travel to next door Leicester Square (in groups) to enjoy the food of their choice.

We will then walk to the London Dungeons, enjoying a view of the Thames, Houses of Parliament, Big Ben and the London Eye, to be at the Dungeons for 4:30pm

From there we will be getting the Tube (or walk depending on weather/time/mood) to Victoria to see Wicked at 7:30pm.

We will then be getting the 11:30pm Coach from Victoria to arrive back in Exeter at the grand old time of 4am.

So, I suggest you make sure you clear your schedules for Friday and get an early night on Wednesday!

All the best!
